1. You must show all work used in arriving at your answers.
2. In quizzes, and for the final exam, using calculators or other electronic devices is allowed.
3. In studying and doing homework, you are encouraged to work together to help each other understand concepts. But any copying from someone else, or from somewhere else, and then claiming it is your own work, is cheating and in violation of of BCC's academic integrity standards. A grade of zero will be given for homeworks that are copies each other. To avoid plagiarism, material that is not your own must be acknowledged by citing its source. The BCC Writing Center is available for guidance on standards for academic writing.
4. Attendance is important. Enrolling in this class is a commitment and a responsibility to take all steps to learn the material, especially coming to class. If any student incurs more than six unexcused absences, that student will be encouraged to drop the class to avoid receiving a failing grade.
