15. (24 points) Fill in the angles inside the boxes. Then fill in the coordinates of the points marked in the circle. [Recall that the x-coordinate of the point is the cosine of the corresponding angle, and the y-coordinate is the sine.]